Dear Sir/Madam,

COMPANY NUMBER:

CURRENT ISSUE NUMBER:

Thank you for your letter and incorporation document submission of April 22nd. I am replying as the public officer responsible for this policy area to confirm that we have received your forms and will be advising the registrar on this case.

Your accounting reference date is the 30th April.

Your current due dates are 22 January 2011 for accounts and 20 May 2010 for returns.

The record for this Private Limited Company was delivered successfully, but your statutory declaration and contact details are currently marked incomplete. I strongly advise you to finish this online process at your earliest convenience:

Also be aware that all registered companies are required to submit a variety of information on their business activities to the Government registrar direct. A civil penalty for late or improper filings are promptly imposed and may be very costly.

In undertaking our role, we take matters equally seriously and appreciate your cooperation. The Government will continue to work with key partners to maintain the highest justifiable level of protection.

Yours faithfully,

John Krebs
